Relationships

If you are related to a director, or have a relationship with a director or employee of an appointing organisation, please state the relationship:

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (as amended)

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 helps rehabilitated ex-offenders back into work by allowing them not to declare criminal convictions after the rehabilitation period has elapsed and the convictions become 'spent'. During the rehabilitation period, convictions are referred to as 'unspent' convictions and must be declared to employers.

The organisation aims to promote equality of opportunity and is committed to treating all applicants equally and fairly based on their skills, experience and ability to fulfil the duties of the role being applied for.

Suitable applicants will not be refused positions because of criminal record information of other information declared, where it has no bearing on the role (for which you are applying) and no risks have been identified against the duties you would be expected to perform as part of that role.

During the rehabilitation period you are required to declare current 'unspent' criminal convictions or cautions (including reprimands and final warnings).

You are not legally required to provide any information about criminal offences that have become spent. Certain criminal offences can be regarded as spent after a specified rehabilitation period as outlined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

Answering 'yes' to the question below will not necessarily bar you from appointment. This will depend on the information you provide and the position you are applying for.

Do you have any UNSPENT convictions as outlined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974?

This includes any unspent convictions that may have been issued in any other country, where it would be an equivalent offence in England and Wales.

It also includes all unspent convictions or Summary Hearings that have been issued under military law while serving in the Armed Forces in the UK or any other country, where it would be an equivalent offence in England and Wales.

You are not required to disclose any information in relation to convictions that have become SPENT. In these circumstances you should select NO to this question.

No

You have two options on how to disclose this information.

You can disclose your record separately together with any statement detailing your unspent conviction or Summary Hearing.

A member of the recruitment team will contact you and advise what steps you need to take to submit your details separately.

Please provide details of the conviction or Summary Hearing including the date and sentence administered in the space below

Do you have any UNSPENT cautions, reprimands or final warnings as outlined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974?

This includes any unspent cautions, reprimands or final warnings that may have been issued in any other country, where it would be an equivalent offence in England and Wales.

It also includes all unspent cautions that have been issued under military law while serving in the Armed Forces in the UK or any other country, where it would be an equivalent offence in England and Wales.

Equal opportunities

Equal opportunities

NHS organisations recognise the benefits of having a diverse workforce and therefore welcome applications from all sections of the community. In addition to this, under the provisions of the Equality Act 2010, all NHS organisations are required to demonstrate that their recruitment processes are fair and that they are not discriminating against or disadvantaging anyone because of their age, disability, gender reassignment status, marriage or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation. Therefore a series of questions need to be raised in order to ascertain who is applying for each position and to ensure that no one is being unfairly discriminated against or disadvantaged.

This section of the application form will be detached from your application form and will not be used as part of the selection process nor will it be seen by anybody who is interviewing you. The information collected is only used for monitoring purposes in an anonymised format to assist the organisation in analysing the profile and make up of individuals who apply, are shortlisted for and appointed to each vacancy. In this way, they can check that they are complying with the Equality Act 2010.

The Equality Act 2010 protects people against discrimination on the grounds of:

- their age and sex.
- their race which includes colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin.
- their religion or belief, including a lack of any belief.
- their sexual orientation, be it bisexual, gay, heterosexual and lesbian.

The Equality Act 2010 also protects people who are married or in a civil partnership.
